Mothers of Twins Fete Fathers at Yule Party

Welcoming in the New Year as they toast club achievements during 1962, members of South Bay Mothers of Twins Club will hold their fifth annual Christmas dinner dance at 7 p.m. Saturday in the ballroom of the Alondra Club in Lawndale.

Glittering Christmas decorations with the traditional sprig of mistletoe will grace the dinner tables arranged by Mrs. James Musereau of Torrance and Mrs. Robert Jackson of Rolling Hills, social chairmen.

Following cocktail hour, 100 members and guests will dine and dance. Music will be provided by the Norman Bowen orchestra.

Santa Claus Frank Karp of Torrance will arrive, minus reindeer, at midnight to present surprise gifts from the members to their husbands. The gifts are a club tradition — tokens of appreciation from the mothers of twins to their spouses.

Philanthropy chairman Mrs. John Adams of San Pedro states that she and her committee have assembled Christmas toys and gifts for the children of the club's adopted needy family. These will accompany the Christmas turkey dinner to be delivered to the family on Dec. 24.

In reviewing the club's activities this past year at a recent meeting, Mrs. Glenn Smith, president, stated that membership of 75 is at capacity. Contributions were made to an adopted family and to the Harbor Area Retarded children.

During 1962 the club established the philanthropy three committee to answer immediate emergency needs and initiated a library service for members.

Children of members joined the mothers at the annual summer picnic and Christmas marionette show.

Plans underway for 1963 call for a hat fashion show in January.

Country Day School Sets Mother's Tea

Rolling Hills Country Day School held its first Mother's Tea at the home of Mrs. Harry H. Wetzel, 401 Via Media, Palos Verdes Estates.

Volunteers who assisted at the school's storybook Circus were guests of honor. Co-chairmen of the event were Mrs. Frederick E. Brunner and Mrs. Clifford O. Harvey, Jr. both of Torrance.

A model of the new school buildings to be erected in 1963 was displayed, according to Miss Evelyn Dawn, director.

Also on display were examples of the children's projects for Christmas giving to a local institution.

Purpose of the newly-formed mothers' group, according to Mrs. Brunner, is to encourage and help the school in developing a sense of community responsibility in each youngster, and to encourage each child to put personal effort into his giving.

The students' A Capella Choir, entertained the mothers with Christmas carols.

Future Teachers Set Party

Children of the Harbor Area Retarded Children's Foundation will be honored today at a party to be given by the Future Teachers of America.

The Marquis Club of San Pedro will be hosts.

Following a program by the children to be presented under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Norabough, Martin Slavick will perform as Santa Claus.

Mrs. James Rafferty will be chairman assisted by Mrs. Howard Foat and Mrs. Frank Cosepka.

TO ENTERTAIN AT TEA
Mrs. Joseph Bosco will entertain her dancing students at a tea to be given at her home from 2 to 4 p.m. today at 20706 Entradero St.
